

PRESENTATION

City of Fresno Historic Resources: Vision and Strategy

HISTORIC RESOURCES GROUP

Fresno's Rich Historic Legacy

Primary Characteristics

Important Contexts

- Railroads and Transit

FRESNO HISTORICAL SOCIETY ARCHIVES

Important Contexts

Downtown Development

Important Contexts

Industrial Development

Important Contexts

Early Neighborhoods & Streetcar Suburbs

Important Contexts

- Ethnic Histories

Important Contexts

Post-World War II Development

Creating the Vision

- Understand the City's rich historic legacy is a unique and important asset.
- Incorporate historic resources as a foundation for future development that creates a distinctive sense of place.
- Use historic development and transportation patterns as a blueprint for repairing the fragmented urban fabric.

Policy & Implementation

- Educate the public to see historic resources as a valuable community assets.
- Prioritize higher-profile historic preservation projects as catalyst for revitalization.
- Develop clear processes for designation, design review and permitting.
- Enhance and revitalize the public realm in historic neighborhoods and around historic resources.
- Provide technical and financial assistance to owners of historic properties

Examples in Other Communities

